

CAIRIBU ANNUAL MEETING

Featuring a mixture of presentations, discussion, poster presentations, K12 Scholar "flash talks", and interactive and networking opportunities.

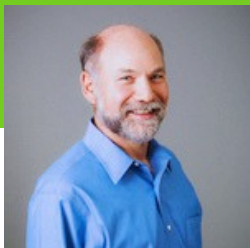

Registration is Free

<https://www.scgcorp.com/cairibumeeting2021/Registration>

Date :
December 2-3, 2021
Virtual

Topic :
Identifying and Bridging Knowledge Gaps

Collaborating for the Advancement of Interdisciplinary Research in Benign Urology

Keynote Speaker:
Carl Kesselman, PhD

University of Southern California Dean's Professor in the Viterbi School of Engineering Epstein Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering and Professor of Computer Science and Preventative Medicine at Keck School of Medicine

Keynote Speaker:
Katherine R. Amato, MD

Northwestern University Assistant Professor of Anthropology, faculty mentor in the Interdisciplinary Biological Sciences PhD Program, and member of the Institute for Policy Research. Dr. Amato is also associate editor for Microbiome and a CIFAR Fellow in the Humans and the Microbiome Program.

Program information:

<https://niddkcairibu.urology.wisc.edu/annual-meeting/>